Mountain Meadows Massacre

In Utah 350 mi so. of Salt Lake City, sep 7, 1857, about 140 men, women and children emigrating from Arkansas and Missouri to Southern California were fired upon by Indians and it is said, disguised Mormons. They withstood the siege until Sep 11 when in promise of protection by John D. Lee, Mormon bishop and Indian Agent they left the shelter of their wagons. All those over 7 yrs old were killed. Lee was executed for the crime and the Mormon Church was suspected of complicity in the crime.
